Southern District of New York

Re: United States v. Tyrone Woolaston, 1:18-cr-00212-AJN

Dear Judge Nathan:

We represent defendant Tyrone Woolaston in the above-referenced matter and respectfully request an adjournment of sentencing, currently scheduled for April 8, 2020, in this case for approximately two months.

The reason for this adjournment request is that I am starting an insider trading trial before the Honorable Judge Berman on March 16, 2020 (SEC v. Amir Waldman, 17 Civ. 2088 (RMB)), which I anticipate will take two weeks. Both the preparation for this trial, and the trial itself, will make it difficult for me to prepare for sentencing. This is the first adjournment I have requested for sentencing in this case. I have communicated with the Government, which consents to this adjournment request. Accordingly, I respectfully request that the sentencing be adjourned until mid-June 2020, so that I can prepare my client for the Probation Department's pre-sentencing investigation and devote sufficient time to our sentencing submission.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

/s/Christopher LaVigne
